

City of Westminster

Hilton on Park Lane

If you have ever seen London Hilton on Park Lane Hotel, you would not forget it for the rest of your life. This gigantic 28-storey hotel, blinding you with the illumination, beauty and originality is recognized as best of the best of Hilton Hotel Group. It is one of the most luxurious hotels, one of the leading light in the capital,

London's trump card and simply unique hotel. It has a very successful situation: in the heart of Mayfair, viewing Hyde Park and having all well knowing curiosities at the hand, such as Buckingham Palace, Green Park or Marble Arch and Oxford Street shopping areas. While going on exploring London, something farther of the hotel you may admire Parliament Square and the Houses of Parliament, the London Eye or "The millennium wheel", Westminster Abbey, London's most famous theatres and all kind of restaurants.

Hilton on Park Lane boasts 450 rooms and 55 suites, all recently refurbished, having every room its own design. Every room in the hotel is delicately designed, including all necessary amenities to provide you calmness, relax, protection from the whole world, carelessness and independence. The room consists of a minibar, satellite TV, fax and modem lines, international sockets, Internet access via TV, air conditioning and even Sony Playstation.

Galvin at Windows There is a very unusual restaurant on the 28th floor. It has a complete, round view of the London city, offering you French tasty cuisine in an elegant and calm atmosphere.